

El profesional de la información (published since 1992) is the leading scientific and professional journal in the Spanish speaking information, library and information technologies field.

We are the first Spanish language journal within this field to be indexed by the Science Citation Index (Thomson ISI) [impact factor JCR 2010 = 0,375], and Scopus (Elsevier) [SJR = 0,03], as well as another 27 databases and bibliographic services.

Full text materials - including the inserted adverts - are available online at: <http://elprofesionaldeinformacion.metapress.com> (2000-present).

These are also distributed by:

- Ebsco's Academic Search Complete (2000- 1 year embargoed).
- ALPSP Learned Journals Collection (ALJC) through SwetsWise.

1992-2009/10 is in open access (with the two most recent years embargoed) from EPI's site <http://www.elprofesionaldeinformacion.com>.

Print run and Users
